Hippodrome: The Hippodrome square was a place for a horse-racing track, court ceremonies, as well as coronations, parades. It was a center of Byzantine's social life for many centuries.

Hagia Sofia: It is one of the most famous places to visit in Istanbul. Hagia Sofia is a great and monumental building which is surrounded by four slender minarets. Being the Cathedral of St. Sophia for 1500 years, it amazes with its architecture, magnificent mosaics and aura of the place of power. You can find symbols of Christianity on its walls that coexist with Arabic script. They are not mingling, but mutually complementing each other. You can find only a few similar ancient buildings in the whole world that have preserved their architecture and luxurious decoration, despite the complexity of their history and fate.

Blue Mosque: We will visit The Blue Mosque also known as Sultanahmet or Sultan Ahmed Mosque. It is called the Blue Mosque thanks to beautiful special blue tiles on the walls which were produced on the order Sultan Ahmed I. You will be amazed by the magnificence and majesty of this mosque.

Grand Bazaar: It is one of the largest and oldest markets in the world which originates in the Ottoman Empire. An oriental tale can't exist without a real bazaar filled with bright colorful goods, laughter, noise, aromas of oriental spices. You will experience unforgettable emotions! Famous Grand Bazaar is a real eastern market, it represents a huge area which is spread out over several blocks of the city, having ancient arches, roofs, etc. The building of the market dates back to 1461. Grand Bazaar has 61 streets, more than 4400 shops, around 2195 studios, currency exchange offices, several cafes, 18 fountains, and 12 mosques. You can also find a school and even one bath there.

Lunch Break: We will have a delicious lunch break in Buhara Restaurant.

The menu includes:

- Soup;
- Salad;
- Chicken or lamb kebab with rice (There is also a vegetarian main course);
- Dessert;
- Water and soft drink.

Topkapi Palace: You will see the residence of the greatest Ottoman Sultans - The Topkapi Palace. It was built in 1479, by order of Sultan Mehmed, and until the mid-19th century, it had been the main residence of the Ottoman Padishahs. Today Topkapi Palace is one of the richest museums in the world and one of Istanbul's favorite attractions. The walls of the palace keep many secrets and mysterious facts. Let's explore it together!

Little Hagia Sophia Mosque: The Mosque Little Hagia Sophia (Küçük Ayasofya Camii) was founded as a result of the transformation of the Saints Sergius and Bacchus Church. It is located not far from the Kennedy Embankment, in the historic district of Sultanahmet. It is undeservedly unknown among tourists. Its interior and decorative elements are amazing. Colonnades, capitals, ornaments create a great example of graceful architecture.

Includes: Transfer from the hotel, Entrance fees, Professional English-speaking tour guide, lunch
At the end of your tour, back to your hotel. Dinner on your own. Overnight at the hotel in Istanbul.

Day 3: Princes' Islands Tour
